Section Ia. WITHIN-TC TRANSFER REQUEST BY (PRINT NAME)

B. Gehma

DATE:

TO: Art Unit 3744

Class/sub 62/457.1

FROM: A.U. 3728

Class 206

REASON:

Invention is insulated cooler. Proper for Cl. 62?

Note: If forwarding to another TC, Section IIa should be used. All transfers out of a TC must be approved by the gatekeeper.

Section Ib. DISPOSITION BY RECEIVING AU

By: Doerrler

A.U. 3744

Date 1-23-01

☐ ACCEPTED BY RECEIVING A.U.☒ NOT ACCEPTED ☒ Forward to TC Post Classifier☐ Non-classification issue/other, return to Originating AU☐ Forward to another TC/AU (section II completed)

REASON:

No coolant or condensate disposal claimed. Seems proper for 220

Hand carried: Personally accepted by

Section IIa

Disposition by receiving TC post classifier -
TRANSFER REQUEST BY (PRINT NAME)

Date 2/16/01

TO: Art Unit 3728

Class/sub 206/217

Post Classifier
H. Pham

REASON: Most comprehensive claims 20-36 control. No coolant means (ice, refrigerant, etc.) recited in claims for class 62 - claims are directed to insulated cooler (no ice or refrigerant means for class 62) and vessels appears proper for class 206 - (the claimed combination is too much for classes 222, 220, 62, 224) -

Gatekeeper concurrence

Note: This section may be used for transfers within a TC or between TCs.
